

Terms & Conditions

“By using our services, clients agree to these term”

1. Swift Trip Holidays provides visa consultancy and assistance services only. Visa approval or rejection is completely dependent on the Embassy/Consulate.
2. All applicants are responsible for providing genuine and accurate documents and information.
3. Service charges once paid are non-refundable.
4. Appointment dates and embassy processing times may change due to embassy policies or technical issues, which are beyond our control.
5. We provide professional guidance and support during the application process, but we do not guarantee visa approval.
6. In case of visa rejection, Swift Trip Holidays will not be held responsible for the embassy's decision.
7. If a client wishes to reapply after a visa rejection, a separate service fee of £40 will be charged for refilling and processing the new application.
8. Clients must cooperate and provide required documents on time to avoid delays in the application process.
9. By using our services, the client agrees to all terms and conditions mentioned above.
